Description:

From In this third title in the Embrace series, 17-year-old half-human, half-angel Violet Eden is struggling more than ever with feelings for her Grigori partner, Lincoln, and with keeping her secret life from her father. Meanwhile, vengeful Exiles' leader Phoenix kidnaps Violet's best friend Steph. Saving Steph could enable Phoenix to unleash Hell on Earth, which would result in freeing his powerful mother, Lilith, and in his domination of both humans and angels. Soon the Grigori crew travel to Greece on a risky, dangerous mission to stop Phoenix before it's too late. Violet remains an engaging, contemporary protagonist whose narrative details her dilemmas and challenges—both the supernatural and everyday kinds—including trying to elude Phoenix’s dangers (and mesmerizing charm) and refining her unique gifts. This is another absorbing read that blends mythology, action-suspense, and romance, and it’s filled with diverse returning and new characters, from loyal pal Spence to austere Grigori Academy seraph Josephine. With an ending that could potentially change everything for Violet, series fans will eagerly anticipate the next installment. HIGH-DEMAND BACKSTORY: Shirvington’s Embrace series is hot, hot, hot. So hot, in fact, that the CW network is adapting it into a television series. Grades 10-12. --Shelle Rosenfeld --This text refers to the edition.
