Description:

Review "... valuable contribution to country music and Arkansas history from the too-rare viewpoint of a woman who lived it." --Arkansas Democrat-Gazette

"spunky, no holds-barred, immensely readable" --Country Music People

"Kudos for publishing this gutsy diary by a member of the Browns singing group... this lady can write." --Kansas City Star

From the Publisher A revealing, entertaining, and first-hand story of the American music business in the 50s and 60s
